lector of Customs at Port Townsend, Indians use it for the manufacture of W. T., whether a Chinaman should be boots and shoes, nots, fishing lines, halters permitted to land at that port, Secretary Maynard telegraphed from Washington: "The act of October 1st positively probibits the landing of Chinese laborers who have departed from United States territory. The Chinese, per Ancon from Alaska, cannot land."

A resident of Chicago, Mr. D. C. Felt, has invented a machine which will add, subtract, multiply or divide without errer. It is said to work perfeetly, and will secure a saving of time in commercial operations, quite like a type-writer in the hands of letter-writers. Babbage's calculating machine, which for generations was the wonder of philosophers, would, if invented now, be only a nine days' talk. Mr. Felt's invention will be of vastly more use than Babbage's, but will draw less oratorical attention. Meanwhile Edison turns from machinery to sanitary discoveries, and proposas by seignee to cordon yellow fever. Science is emphatically king.

European courts used to soberly try animals guilty of the death of human beings. China still tries its idols when they are supposed to be negligent of the public welfare. The Viceroy at Freehow has just put on trial fifteen wooden fellows for compassing the death of a noted military commandar. They were coademned, then beheaded, and then, after a Hibernian climax, were drowned, to make sure of the beheading. It must be understood that idols in China represent actual bodies of deceased ancestors. They are supposed to be occupied by spirits, and so to be capable of doing harm or benefit. Consistently with this theory the Chinamen should make them toe the mark. Is itsnot, however, a convenient way of testing Celestial pewers by their actual responses to our wishes. It is somewhat after the plan of Prof. Tyndal.-Globe-Democrat.

Advertising That Pays.

Continuous advertising says the El Paso Weekly Tribune, brings much larger returns in proportion to the outlay than periodic or spasmodic advertising. Nearly every business has its "dull season," during which a good advertisement will do faithful work, day and night, rain or shine, in familiarizing consumers with the name, location and specialties or advantages of the advertiser. When the time to buy comes he reaps the benefit of all his seed-sowing, unless be has made the mistake of stopping his advertisement and it cannot be found when the purchaser looks for full particulars. DRESSED POULTRY same. Having made an extensive trip Persistency will win every time if work is judiciously done.

The water proofing material recently discovered by M. Tanin turns out to be simply dissolved celluloid. The mixture is prepared with pyrozline, which is prepared by disaggregating some cellulose with paper or with rags in a mixture of sulphuric seid and azotic zeid.
